

Proclamation
of the Borough of Madison
Proclaiming

October 6, 2021 as Energy Efficiency Day

WHEREAS, energy efficiency continues to be the cheapest, quickest and cleanest way to meet our energy needs and reduce utility bills for residential, business, and industrial customers; and

WHEREAS, energy efficiency can also make our homes and workspaces healthier, safer and more comfortable; and

WHEREAS, smarter energy use reduces the amount of electricity we need to power our lives, which helps avoid power plant emissions that can harm our health, pollute our air and warm our climate; and

WHEREAS, cutting energy waste saves U.S. consumers billions of dollars on their utility bills every year, up to $500 per household from appliance efficiency standards alone; and

WHEREAS, implementing energy efficiency and other clean energy policies and programs can help boost economic opportunities and job creation while continuing to move toward a sustainable future; and

WHEREAS, the residents of Madison can continue to contribute to our energy efficiency efforts by learning about and participating in our Home Energy Audit Program with Ceil Power; and

WHEREAS, a nationwide network of energy efficiency groups and partners has designated the first Wednesday in October as the fifth annual Energy Efficiency Day.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Robert H. Conley, Mayor of the Borough of Madison, on behalf of the governing body, do hereby proclaim October 6, 2021, as “ENERGY EFFICIENCY DAY.”

Robert H. Conley, Mayor
